

Idaho Council on Domestic Violence and Victim Assistance Innovation Awards 2012

This year, during the Two Days in June Conference, the ICDVVA will recognize organizations or individuals demonstrating innovation through engagement in measurable, sustainable, intentional activities that serve to build on existing services, or create resources critical to supporting an organizational strategic plan. Innovation is demonstrated by people putting ideas into valuable action that contributes to the effective delivery of services to individuals, families, and communities experiencing violence.

Award categories include:

Service Innovation

Fundraising Innovation

Organizational Innovation (i.e. partnerships, policy changes)

We would like to hear about your innovative ideas, how these ideas were implemented, and the outcomes of the process. Please submit a one page, single-spaced description of the innovation, how the ideas were put into action, and the outcomes of the effort.

Please include the following on one single spaced page:

Name of the individual making the submission

Name of the organization

Description of the innovation

Description of how these ideas were put into action

Outcomes of the effort

Deadline for submission:

The awardees will be notified by May 1, 2012 of the award to be received. These awards will be presented at the Two Days in June Conference. The awardees are asked to share the innovation with the Conference participants at the awards luncheon (up to ten minutes for each presentation). The best way to build programs and services in the state is to share innovative ideas that can be replicated! The Council values and appreciates the sharing of innovation.

The recipient organization will receive travel expenses paid for one employee to attend the Two Days in June Conference (airfare, lodging and registration).

Please consider a submission for the Innovation Awards this year – showcase your organization!

THE DUE DATE FOR SUBMISSION IS APRIL 10, 2012
